

leave the no call list as it is. It's the best thing the state has done for my in my home.